Online Viewing/Ordering of Images

Photos will be available online at (www.jwsearsphotography.com) under "Photography: Recent Shoots" for up to three months. During this time: friends, family, or others may access the images and order prints of the images. All images ordered online receive complimentary touch-ups and enhancements prior to printing. Images may be protected at the client's request using a password.

Reasonable Rates

Most photographers require you to order all images through them, resulting in additional expenses every time you want to use or print an image. JW Sears Photography will still maintain the original copyright, but will provide you with a Master CD of your images, allowing you to print, copy, or post your images for personal use at your convenience with no additional expense. You are still able to purchase prints online, and you can also send friends and relatives to the website to manage all of their photo requests and printing orders. It's convenient, simple to manage, and inexpensive!
